

Undermine

Trash Boat

Everything I know
Words I etched in stone
Will fade in time
Foundations now undermined
It all erodes
Even with a gentle flow
No support this time
So maybe I'll stay inside

The world is not designed
Your life is not defined
There is no truth, there is no guide
Some pain will never subside

Capacity will swell with time
With all the negatives that fill your mind
All the anger, anguish, feeling so selfish
Balance your mindset, regret will perish

Everything I know
Words I etched in stone
Will fade in time
Foundations now undermined
I'm waiting for this palace to erode
It's needing more than just a gentle flow
No support this time
So maybe I'll stay inside

Words etched in stone erode
They slowly go
Like lowly bones on a heavy load
A bitter taste of getting old
A bitter taste of [?]
I've made mistakes and I'm not perfect
But living's worth it

I still obsess over bridges burned
But if I can keep my head straight
The fire will light the way

Everything I know
Words I etched in stone
Will fade in time
Foundations now undermined
I'm waiting for this palace to erode
It's needing more than just a gentle flow
No support this time
So maybe I'll stay inside
So maybe I'll stay inside
