

Vertigo

Trash Boat

Yeah
I'm used

Used boy
I've been abused
So why would I choose to deny the light?
Die
It's so easy to die
So why do I deserve suicide?

Love, but it's never enough
Is it better to suffer and survive?
Caught, now I feel like a fraud
Now I'm stuck with a god that wished he could die

I can never help it, I can be so selfish
Cut me to my core
Every little defect, just another reject
Voices that I can't ignore

I'm listening

Vertigo getting close, I can feel the threat
But it hasn't happened, it hasn't happened yet
Come and go like a ghost, but it's so clear
Like, like I remember, like I remember it

Love, but it's never enough
Is it better to suffer and survive?
Caught, now I feel like a fraud
Now I'm stuck with a god that wished he could die

Every little defect, just another reject
Voices that I can't ignore

Vertigo getting close, I can feel the threat
But it hasn't happened, it hasn't happened yet
Come and go like a ghost, but it's so clear
Like, like I remember, like I remember it

Vertigo getting close, I can feel the threat
But it hasn't happened, it hasn't happened yet
Come and go like a ghost, but it's so clear
Like, like I remember, like I remember it

Love, but it's never enough
Is it better to suffer (But it hasn't happened, it hasn't happened yet)
Love, but it's never enough
Is it better to suffer (Like, like I remember, like I remember it)
