

Not so sure where I'm going
I can't recall where I've been
Every time I take a turn
It feels like I'm starting all over again

I've made mistakes
I did my time
Buried the flame
I upped the stakes
Now I'm left to...

Put together the pieces
Can't make out what I've done
Blatant accusations
Everywhere I turn

I've made mistakes
I did my time
Buried the flame
I upped the stakes
Now I'm left to...

Figure it out

Think it through
How can I follow the light if I can't see the truth?
Force it together
If it breaks, then it breaks

Think it through

Hands to the sky
You can run but you can't hide
The pieces don't fit
Crush them all in my fist
