

Asylum

Trauma

Welcome back to Bedlam, back at home again
You belong in Bedlam, chaos is your friend
All the world is all too much for your twisted brain
So back to Bedlam Hospital for the criminal Insane

Chorus 1: In the Lost Asylum leave your reason at the gates
In the Lost Asylum your derangement celebrates

Melancholy wants you to take her to the grave
For some prison tenderness out beyond the graves
Nothing quite says romance like the stench of death
She's a carnie ride for hours if you can catch your breath

Chorus 2: In the Lost Asylum leave your reason at the gates
In the Lost Asylum your derangement celebrates
In the Lost Asylum there are madmen in the halls
In the Lost Asylum you'll be climbing up the walls

Do you feel a bit strange?
Is everything out of range?
Crazy Crazy Crazy Crazy

You can stay forever, you will disappear
Don't believe you'll ever leave - No one knows you're here

Chorus 2
