

From Here to Hell

Trauma

Now - Light the fire, blow the trumpets
The signal fire calling us to War
To your Arms, to your Armor
The time has come to settle ancient scores

Run to the highway, through the mountains
To beat of drums the flags are flying high
On the journey to the Glory
Many win but many more will die

Chorus 1: From Here To Hell where fallen dwell
The fighting's over let this life be done
From Here To Hell the dead won't tell
The battle's over but the War is just begun

Down through the valley to the journey
The Fields of Doom we ride into their steel
Battle thunder, flash of lightning
Ride on into the Realm of the Unreal

Chorus 2: From Here To Hell where fallen dwell
The fighting's over let this life be done
From Here To Hell the final bell
The souls of heroes let the darkness come
From Here To Hell the dead won't tell
The battle's over but the War is just begun

Over the river stands the boatman
The Dead must pay a coin so they may cross
All the plunder for the ferryman
Will never be enough to take you

Chorus 2
