

Pain

Trauma

I wake up to the darkness
There are no blue birds that sing
I don't now day of hour
The church bells no longer ring
I look up to the Heavens
But the storm clouds blind my eyes
If I see the sun again
It will be a surprise

There is no escaping from starts to the end
There is no escaping
Pain Pain Pain it comes again
Pain Pain Pain my only friend

Walking with the zombies
With the ghouls among the trolls
Suffering in silence
They all do just what they're told
Say that's just the way it is I call it slavery
Maybe we should kill them all
It I may be so bold

There is no escaping from starts to the end
There is no escaping
Pain Pain Pain it comes again
Pain Pain Pain my only friend
Pain Pain Pain it comes again
Pain Pain Pain my only friend

The holy men say suffering
And misery is our lot
Promises of Heaven
Are the best of what they've got
Children learn that cruelty is a very human way
You only hurt the ones you love
So hurt them everyday

There is no escaping from starts to the end
There is no escaping
Pain Pain Pain it comes again
Pain Pain Pain my only friend
Pain Pain Pain it comes again
Pain Pain Pain my only friend

Solo

I wake up to the darkness
There are no blue birds that sing
I don't now day of hour
The church bells no longer ring

There is no escaping from starts to the end
There is no escaping
Pain Pain Pain it comes again
Pain Pain Pain my only friend
Pain Pain Pain it comes again
Pain Pain Pain my only friend
