

Cool Head

Travis Barker

(Yeah, yeah)

Relaxed and I'm thinking did I forget to mention
I'm sitting on a location, I call it new station Destructing my best hope is Mother fuckers ain't got no life, no vision, no ambition
No will to do a damn thing, they often speak greasy and talk do wn on a nigga make it shinin' how is that bubbly?
so menstrual psychology
Tamponing, stressful overloaded jealous niggas
I'm in my own world, literally no bullshit baby!

I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head

Ain't nobody tripping on, I'm cool, relax
I keep my mojo on, damn no turning me off
I keep making that money, that money, that money,
Yeah, keep my mojo on, damn, no turning me off
Ain't nobody tripping on, I'm cool, relax
I keep my mojo on damn no turning me off
I keep making that money, that money, that money, yeah
I keep my mojo on, damn, no turning me off.

I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now

They stay living right in their own eyes, in their own lies, in their holes
We see beyond the hate, we see a poor soul who hasn't been told they only know what they've been shown

I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now
