

Dogshit

Travis Barker

I, I, I, I don't, uh, uh (One, two, three, four)

Don't wanna hear what you have done
Don't tell me what to do, I know you're full of shit
When everything you have is gone
Don't come back begging for the life you envy, bitch

I'm on my way and when I leave, I'll be a household name
Fuck all the fame, I got some Maisons, stay up in yo' lane
You comin' up, but, bet, my nigga, you 'bout to get tamed
I seen you changin' your ways, you think this shit's a game
You niggas Minute Maid, I'll turn you to some lemonade
Your friends, they bias, how you got yo' ass some renegades?
You've been betrayed, I'm in the blaze, coughin' in the flames
Now, quiver in the flames
Fable, you tellin' lies and tryna hide, but you aren't able
I cauterize, she tryna run, let's get the tango
Reach for the skies, I'm tryna die
Fuck being playful, run

Don't wanna hear what you have done
Don't tell me what to do, I know you're full of shit
When everything you have is gone
Don't come back begging for the life you envy, bitch

Told her "Suffocate"
Give you a head start, better run away
He keep thinking he hard but I'm unafraid
Put my hand on the Glock, make it fluctuate
I don't fuck with you cucks 'cause you double-faced
Not to mention that yo' shit just cut and paste
Hit you dead in your chest, give you muscle aches
You see me in the pit, get the fuck away, ah
Genocide and agony, two worlds collide, catastrophe
I'll fuck 'em up then count the G's, I told his ass to rot
I do not find you challengin', you're just another casualty
All these speakin' fallacies, destroy them off the wall
Fuckin' hate you
You survived, but you can't find the escape route
When I die, I don't wanna be an angel
Better hide, bitch, I'm mentally unstable, lie

Don't wanna hear what you have done
Don't tell me what to do, I know you're full of shit
When everything you have is gone
Don't come back begging for the life you envy, bitch
Don't wanna hear what you have done
Don't tell me what to do, I know you're full of shit
When everything you have is gone
Don't come back begging for the life you envy, bitch

Yeah, hahaha, yeah
