

ABBY

Travis Denning

I hate to break it to ya girl, but we're breaking up
I've put up with your drama just about long enough
And now you wanna know if there's somebody else
Well if I'm being honest then the answer is yes

And her name is Abby, that's anybody but you
She'll have a bad little body, be the life of the party, drink
a cold beer too
Won't make me, go crazy, like you-know-who
And her name is Abby, that's anybody but you

Being A-B-B-Y, gonna have an H-E double-L of a time
Yeah, A-B-B-Y, anybody but you sounds good tonight, hey

Well I'll bet you and her probably won't get along She'll love my beat up truck and all my old country songs
She'll even fit right in with all my wild-ass friends
And later on when I go introduce her to them

I'll be like, this is Abby, that's anybody but you
She'll have a bad little body, be the life of the party, drink
a cold beer too
Won't make me, go crazy, like you-know-who
And her name is Abby, that's anybody but you

Look, won't drive a Honda, won't hate my momma, won't love the drama, Amen
Can't wait to see her, can't wait to meet her, get her name but 'til then

Imma call her Abby, that's anybody but you
She'll have a bad little body, be the life of the party, drink
a cold beer too
Won't make me, go crazy, like you-know-who
And her name is Abby, that's anybody but you

Being A-B-B-Y, gonna have an H-E double-L of a time
Yeah, A-B-B-Y, anybody but you sounds good tonight, hey

Yeah, this is Abby, that's anybody but you
