

Can't Find One

Travis Denning

I get it, you're sorry, baby, I agree
You're askin', what are we, but girl, there ain't no we
No more
I hate to be so bold
I don't think much about ya, but I think you need to know

I've looked in the liquor cabinet up above the sink
Tried to find it in my first two or three drinks
Hell, I even had my buddies help me look downtown
We looked till we forgot why we were lookin' around
I even thought I'd find it on a stranger's kiss
And I'm sorry to say that ain't where it is
I've tried to find a damn to give about the things you've done
But I've looked everywhere, and I swear, girl, I can't find one

I even went searchin' out at the lake
And one thing's for certain, that's where it ain't
But hey, there's always tonight
Might find it in your best friend's kiss-me-eyes

I've looked in the liquor cabinet up above the sink
Tried to find it in my first two or three drinks
Hell, I even had my buddies help me look downtown
We looked till we forgot why we were lookin' around
I even thought I'd find it on a stranger's kiss
And I'm sorry to say that ain't where it is
I've tried to find a damn to give about the things you've done
But I've looked everywhere, and I swear, girl, I can't find one

Yeah, girl, I think it's time we just forget what we were I'll do us both a favor, let me call off the search

'Cause I've looked in the liquor cabinet up above the sink
I've tried to find it in my first two or three drinks
Hell, I even had my buddies help me look downtown
We looked till we forgot why we were lookin' around
I even thought I'd find it on a stranger's kiss
And I'm sorry to say that ain't where it is
I've tried to find a damn to give about the things you've done
But I've looked everywhere, and I swear, girl, I can't find one

I can't find one
