

Good Woman

Travis Garland

All these drugs but I wanna do you
In a room full of lies girl you stay so true
No it ain't about the job you work or the car you drive oh no
I'm talking bout something real
Something deeper

All she listen to is Drake and The Weeknd
Like you don't even know I be sitting here in this car
Stay going out going up every weekend
But that ain't who you are

You know you're a bad bitch
But you're so attractive
Cause you're a good woman, woman

So fly but so modest
Girl you're a goddess
And you're a good woman, woman

I see you over there you been putting in work
But why you always putting everybody else first
You're too giving and you're kind
I know people take advantage
But you never get jaded
You're always making me wanna be better baby, better baby

And all she ever playing is Miguel and Frank Ocean
Like you don't even know I be sitting here in this car
Take me so high and I ain't even been smoking
It's just who you are

You know you're a bad bitch
But you're so attractive
Cause you're a good woman, woman

So fly but so modest
Girl you're a goddess
And you're a good woman, woman

Baby how'd you get so wonderful
And beautiful
I don't understand it
I swear that I would never take your love
For granted

You know you're a bad bitch
But you're so attractive
Cause you're a good woman, woman

So fly but so modest
Girl you're a goddess
And you're a good woman, woman
