

Bad Idea

Travis Greene

Walking through the shadows
Life has taken air away
Here in the middle
Everyone has walked away
But I know a God who will never leave you
He will be there

It'd be a bad idea to quit
It'd be a bad idea to give up over this
He brought you out before He'll do it again

This is not the first time
It's been dark like this before
Remember the last time
Fear was drowned in perfect love
That is the God who will never leave you
He will be there

It'd be a bad idea to quit
It'd be a bad idea to give up over this
He brought you out before He'll do it again
God's not new to this
If you wait, He'll give you new strength
He brought you out before He'll do it again

Come what may, won't lose faith
Know that You got it
Good on Your promise
The wait will be worth it

All my plans, in Your hands
Know that You got it
Good on Your promise
The wait will be worth it

They that wait He gives strength
Know that you got it
Good on your promise
The wait will be worth it

Brought me out, won't stop now
Know that you got it
Good on your promise
The wait will be worth it
