

Easter

Travis Greene

So many charges
I was in debt over my head
Couldn't afford it
But Someone paid for it instead
It took a while to recognize
That what I owe did not exist no more

What I could not pay
He handled for me
He took the bill and the receipt is signed in blood

An outstanding balance
That I could not rectify
All out of options
But You settled just in time
I couldn't understand how
What I owe did not exist anymore

What I could not pay
He handled for me
He took the bill and the receipt is signed in blood

He paid it all
All to Jesus I owe
Sin left a stain
He washed it as snow
When I could not pay
He covered it
Hallelujah, to the One who paid it all

He paid it all
All to Jesus I owe
He washed it as snow
When I could not pay
He covered it
Hallelujah, to the One who paid it all

Oh, no, no, oh, no, no, oh, no, no
Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
We declare it all
Our God who risen, risen from the grave, oh
So we sing

On the cross debt was paid
In the tomb His body laid
Darkness ruled 'til light appeared
He rolled the stone, He silenced fear
Oh death, look at who's laughing now
Oh grave, the Savior's walking out
With wisdom, power, truth and grace
All hail the King of Heaven reigns

He paid it all
All to Jesus I owe
He washed it as snow

When I could not pay

On the cross debt was paid
He rolled the stone, He silenced fear
Oh death, look at who's laughing now

(He did it for me, did it all)
Hele, hele, hele, hele
Ooh, Mama...
