IMPOSSIBLE

Travis Greene

In the beginning it looked impossible
For God to create fashion and make us beautiful
He holds it all; all is in control
So I'll testify of the God I know

Oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh I serve a God who does the impossible

From the heart of the author my story came to be
And on that altar he laid down his life for me
He is alive and living in my soul
So I'll testify of the God I know

Oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
I serve a God who does the impossible
Oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
I serve a God who does the impossible

Nothing's too great, nothing's too strong
My God can do anything he wants
When seasons change, he's in control
My God can do anything he wants
It's possible (Nothing's too big)

Nothing's too big (Nothing's too strong)
My God can do anything he wants
One thing remains he's in control
My God can do anything he wants
It's possible

He holds it all, all is in control
So I'll testify of the God I know
(Oh-oh-oh-oh)
Oh-oh I serve a God who does the impossible
Oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh I serve a God who does the impossible
Oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh I serve a God who does the impossible

We serve a God who does the impossible
Nothing's too great
Nothing's too strong
My God can do anything he wants
When seasons change
He's in control
My God can do anything he wants
It's possible

Nothing's too great
Nothing's too strong
My God can do anything he wants

One thing remains
He's in control
My God can do anything he wants

It's possible

He holds it all, all is in control (All is in control)
He holds it all, all is in control

So I'll testify of the God I know
