Travis Greene

I haven't been perfect
But Your love is worth it
So many chances
To prove to You that I am changing
Truth is, I just keep falling
But you just keep calling, still Don't wanna make a promise I can't keep
So, here's the key to my heart
Come search me now

And if You find it in my heart
Take it away
I wanna be where You are
If You find it in my heart
Take it away
Just want to please You, God

After the searching
Fix it or burn It
I don't deserve It
Your mercy kept me
Finally changing
Takes the same time to Go back or keep moving on
Don't want to wake up who I used to be
So, here's the key to my heart
Come search me now

If You find it in my heart
Take it away
I wanna be where You are
If You find it in my heart
Take it away
Just want to please You, God
If You find it in my heart
Take it away
I wanna be where You are
If You find it in my heart
Take it away
Just want to please You, God
(All I want is You)
(All I want is You)
(Take it away now)
