

Over Again

Travis Porter

I wake up in the morning brush my teeth and wash my face and my day begins
Invite over some lady friends, get drunk, get sober and my day starts over a gain

And it starts over again

Get drunk get sober and my day starts over again

I wake up 'bout a quarter 'til 10 then my day starts over again

I thank God every single time I wake up

And the girl in the back room putting on her make-up

Shawty last night had some great cut

Everybody saw it 'cause we did it with the drapes up

Man that party party last night was wild man

I was running around crazy looking like a wild man

We a had a rock band something that rock man

And some crazy dude in the back playing violin

And everybody started beat-boxing with a crazy ass snap like a knee popping and we trying to make trillions

Nigga but you got to make sure caine is in the building nigga

Invite over some lady friends, get drunk, get sober and my day starts over a
gain

And it starts over again

Get drunk get sober and my day starts over again

I wake up 'bout a quarter 'til 10 then my day starts over again

La la la la still high from yesterday

Same clothes on still fly from yesterday

Roll a blunt eat a bowl of trixs then get up

Damn I had fun with you but bitch get up

My partner found my phone my drunk ass thought I lost it

I tried to get dress there were five bitches in my clothes got a new text me ssage

You went crazy at the waffle house

A hundred sausage biscuit what the hell you talking 'bout

I think they were lying until I saw the pictures

150 bottles and smoke 150 Swisses

I met a lot of women and turn them into sluts

I tell them I'm dog, but they still gonna wanna fuck

I wake up in the morning brush my teeth and wash my face and my day begins

Invite over some lady friends, get drunk, get sober and my day starts over a
gain

And it starts over again

Get drunk get sober and my day starts over again

I wake up 'bout a quarter 'til 10 then my day starts over again

I be feeling every day is a party day

And we living every day like it's a holiday

Living it up today I'm out of town tomorrow

No bring the girls, bring the weed, and the alcohol

No need to rip the club out man it's OK two hours pass

Now we kicking it at my place

The living room don't got no sofas just some chairs in it

We got this bitch over capacity like a whale in it
And this bitch so throw off I almost fell in it
And I forgot my house had any stairs in it
So I went up the stairs to the second floor
Open the second door and seen a whore on top of a whore (damn)

Invite over some lady friends, get drunk, get sober and my day starts over a
gain
And it starts over again
Get drunk get sober and my day starts over again
I wake up 'bout a quarter 'til 10 then my day starts over again
