Good for Nothing

Travis

I've got nothing to hide from you
I do or I die for you
God only knows that
I'd be whatever you want me to be
I can be but then who can be me
And it's tough but love is everything that we're living for
Don't tell me that

You're good for nothing
And there's nothing you haven't been called
If you're good for nothing
I'm nothing at

All I've got in my head is a
Four letter alphabet
Everything's set
When you tell me again and again

I'm your best ever friend
That you keep 'til the end
But there's no end or beginning to what we're living for
Don't tell me that

You're good for nothing
And there's nothing you haven't been called
If you're good for nothing
I'm nothing

And nobody said that you'd get this far
And nobody said that you've played this hard
As high as we are isn't halfway far enough
To tell me that you're

Good for nothing
And there's nothing you haven't been called
If you're good for nothing

I'm nothing at all
I'm nothing at all
