

No Love Lost

Travis

I woke up feeling shit this morning
Something in my eye
I woke up feeling shit this morning
Didn't come as a surprise
'Cause I tried to
More than I'd like to
Not sleeping
No way

Standing at the window yawning
Watching the rain
I never really felt belonging
And never again
But I'd like to
More than I tried to
Not sleeping
No way
But

No love lost
No love lost

Three drops on a window pane
Just rolling down together
No fear, no regret, no shame
Just under the weather

No love lost
No love lost
No love lost
No love lost
