

Take Me On Your Wings

Treat

When I think of you, do you think of me
I know something's there, naturally
Growing every day and I keep wondering
How to make your heart talk to me

From the dark of night 'til the morning light
A million faces run desperately
Made a few mistakes so I know what it takes
To get back again on my feet

But I will be waiting at the end of the road
Giving and taking, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh...

Take me on your wings of passion
Take me on your wings so far away, oh-oh-oh
Take me on your wings of passion
So far away

Have so much unsaid burning in my head
Gotta let it out set it free
If it was for real not a fantasy
You'd be lying here next to me

But I will be waiting at the end of the road

Giving and taking, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh...
Take me on your wings of passion
Take me on your wings so far away, oh-oh-oh
Take me on your wings of passion
So far away, yeah, yeah

Take me on your wings of passion
Take me on your wings so far away, oh-oh-oh
Take me on your wings of passion
So far away, so far away
So far away, so far away
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Take me on your wings of passion
Take me on your wings so far away, oh-oh-oh
Take me on your wings of passion
So far away
I'll be waiting at the road

Take me on your wings of passion
Take me on your wings so far away, oh-oh-oh
(So far away)
Take me on your wings of passion
So far away
