

The Glorious Ones

Tree63

I am someone who got up again
I am someone unshakable
I have seen the earth spinning 'round
And now I understand

They used to keep you on the outside
Now, you're the only survivor
You have spoken with the angels
And your face still shines just like mine

We're the glorious ones, the glorious ones
Forever in the sun, we're the glorious ones

And tonight we are the strangers
In the darkness underground
We have eternal things in our hands
And tomorrow we rise, so wise

We're the glorious ones, the glorious ones
Forever in the sun, we're the glorious ones

We're the glorious ones, the glorious ones
Forever in the sun, we're the glorious ones

We're the glorious ones, the glorious ones
Forever in the sun, we're the glorious ones
