

One Prayer Answered

Trembling Blue Stars

If I could have just one wish granted.
If I could have just one prayer answered.
This would be that wish, this would be that prayer.
Nothing bad must happen to her.

Let me take the time to tell her.
Everything that I should tell her.
How I need her more and more, how I'm glad she came along.
And how I know we've found where we belong.
And how I know we've found where we belong.

Nothing bad must happen to her.
In the cell of the night.
Holding on so tight.
Thinking this is all we want for the rest of our lives.
