

One More Time

Tremonti

Take away the reprisal
Do away with loss
Send the wolves to the masses
Publicize the cost
Loneliness and survival
The emptiness is bleak
Tear away at corruption
It preys upon the weak

The end has just begun
Carry us away
The ending starts today

One more time
Let there be one less trial
The day is coming
Will there be no survival?

Waste away in the ashes
Homes devoid of life
Hideous to the last breath
Narcissistic pride

Another tale for the ages
Another page has turned Another reason to die for Another lesson learned

The end has just begun
The ending starts today

One more time
Let there be one less trial
The day is coming
Will there be no survival?

Fools believe
That those who lead
Will forge a better day
Carry hope
Then tie the rope
The cycle comes again

Draw the line
Or fools decide
The end of all of us
There will be no turning back
The end has just begun

The end has just begun
Carry us away
The ending starts today

One more time
Let there be one less trial
The day is coming
Will there be no survival?

No survival

Will there be no survival?
