

Can I Cross Your Mind

Trent Dabbs

Babe why aren't you crying looking for answers you can't find ?
Tonight I need some good lighting more than good timing
can i cross your mind ?

I need believing that part of of me is still there with you

i became a picture
i even taught my heart to lie reminders
come out of nowhere
straight out of thin air
"can i cross your mind

i need believing...

for the love of God admit it you never really wanted goodbye
can i cross your mind ?

strong winds moving towards the ocean birds fly along the southern skies.
