

To Be The One

Trespassers William

Oh I,
when are you truly there do you think about the world how far this time to be yourself must you go down the street floating on the top is better and you know just what you are what you are talking about is pure what you're talking about is pure and what you're talking about is pure what you're talking about must be the dream beyond the words it gives weight and steers itself how far this time to be the one that you knew was always there won't you take the time to get it so you know just what you are

what you're talking about will hang the sun every day to melt you down
