

Heartstrings

Trevor Daniel

I swear I never meant to hurt you
Make you cry
I'll never let you close enough to
Say goodbye
I'm only pulling on your heartstrings
For the moment, no emotion
I'm only gonna hurt you
Make you cry
(Make you cry)

Can you... tell me why
You think you can change me
Think you can save me from myself

Dressed in white
Maybe I'll break you
Maybe I'll take you right to Hell

I can't feel a thing
All this novocaine
Running through my heart
I can't feel a thing
Numbing out the pain
Yeah, I'll take the blame

I swear I never meant to hurt you
Make you cry
I'll never let you close enough to
Say goodbye
I'm only pulling on your heartstrings
For the moment, no emotion
I'm only gonna hurt you
Make you cry
(Make you cry)

When the night's Growing cold
And your tears they shed
Don't you save your breath

By the time
That I'm done

I can't feel a thing
All this novocaine
Running through my heart
I can't feel a thing

Numbing out the pain
Yeah, I'll take the blame

I swear I never meant to hurt you
Make you cry
I'll never let you close enough to
Say goodbye

I'm only pulling on your heartstrings
For the moment, no emotion
I'm only gonna hurt you
Make you cry
(Make you cry)

I don't wanna make you cry
But when I do, I won't feel a thing
When I do, I won't feel a thing
I don't wanna make you cry
But when I do, I won't feel a thing
When I do, I won't feel a thing

No no no
