Time and time again, I've lost my confidence
Thinkin' about the way you smile
At your sucker friends
I'm jealous, it's a sin
And if I don't make a move soon, you'll probably be with him
But it's hard cause you're a ten
Baby, come to my crib
We could play video games, we could watch some netflix
Oh yeah
With you it's hard for me to speak my mind
Partly cause you're hella fine
Partly cause those hazel eyes
Got me hypnotized, now I'm realizing
The things you got me feeling's real, yeah, the feeling's is real
Maybe I should make a move
Maybe I should make a move

Baby, I'm in love with those pretty little eyes, of yours
Baby, do not tell me lies, of course
I could see right through those eyes, that I love, that I love
Baby, I'm in love with those pretty little eyes of yours
Baby, do not tell me lies, of course
I could see right through those eyes, that I love, that I love
That I love
I think I should

I see right through your eyes
Baby, don't tell me lies
Just tell me that you love me
If it's true, if not, fuck me or not
Yeah, it's okay, it's okay
Baby, I understand
You're too young for this love shit
It's got you second guessing
You don't wanna go through a mid-life, do ya?
You don't miss him that much, you'd leave me and wife him, would ya?
Oh baby, would ya?
This shit is crazy, shit is crazy
I think maybe you should think about what you thinkin' lately
You ain't thinkin' lately
You say you uckin' love me, then you say you're just friends
Then you say you miss him, we take a break, then you kiss him
Now I'm pissed, make excuses
Then we blame it on the distance
Oh yeah

Baby, I'm in love with those pretty little eyes, of yours
Baby, do not tell me lies, of course
I could see right through those eyes, that I love, that I love
Baby, I'm in love with those pretty little eyes of yours
Baby, do not tell me lies, of course
I could see right through those eyes, that I love, that I love
That I love
I think I should

(Baby, I'm in love with those pretty little eyes, of yours
Baby, do not tell me lies, of course

I could see right through those eyes, that I love, that I love
Baby, I'm in love with those pretty little eyes of yours
Baby, do not tell me lies, of course
I could see right through those eyes, that I love, that I love
That I love)
