

Story

Trevor Daniel

I wonder which story you tell
One where we're in Heaven or you put me through Hell
I guess I just forgot how it felt
When I didn't question every part of myself

Once upon a time
I swear to God we were happy
Now when I look back
It kind of feels like a bad dream
Now blaming is the only thing that remains between us
Memory lane, it's a shame to think when we were tight

I wonder which story you tell
One where we're in Heaven or you put me through Hell
I guess I just forgot how it felt
When I didn't question every part of myself
Why don't you give me a reason, reason
You know my heart won't break even, even
I wonder which story you tell
The one where we're in Heaven or you put me through Hell

What do you tell your friends 'cause you know that I've been wondering lately
Do you paint me as the bad guy, the guy who's some sort of villain baby
Now blaming is the only thing that remains between us
Memory lane, it's a shame to think about when we were tight

I wonder which story you tell
One where we're in Heaven or you put me through Hell
I guess I just forgot how it felt
When I didn't question every part of myself
Why don't you give me a reason, reason
You know my heart won't break even, even
I wonder which story you tell
The one where we're in Heaven or you put me through Hell
