

Baby, I'm tired of pretending
That I still think you're the one
Maybe I should finally stop promising
I could be somebody you love

Say shit that I know hurts
Never get remorse
Blame me all you like but
If we're keeping score

Lately I've been tryin'
But this ain't really it no more
Not much left to say
I don't wanna do this no more

Sorry I'm not the perfect person
But if I'm being blunt
Think it's time for me to be selfish
'Cause I can't handle us

Terrified, terrified of
The day that I bury our love
Maybe I just resent the person
Who you wish I'd become

Baby, I'm tired of pretending
That I still think you're the one
Maybe I should finally stop promising
I could be somebody you love

You still got me high
When I was at my low
When I was at my low, low, low
I don't wanna be the one, oh
You still got me high
When I was at my low
When I was at my low, low, low
I don't wanna be the one, oh

Sorry I'm not the perfect person
But if I'm being blunt
Think it's time for me to be selfish
'Cause I can't handle us

Terrified, terrified of
The day that I bury our love
Maybe I just resent the person
Who you wish I'd become

Baby, I'm tired of pretending
That I still think you're the one
Maybe I should finally stop promising
I could be somebody you love
