

A Reminder

Trevor Hall

Do you remember
When you looked in the water and saw your reflection
The embers
They drew out a map and they showed you direction
Your sender
Is far in the east where your heart is at peace
When you enter
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center
My love it's just a reminder
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center

Help me recall that first morning
Sunlight adorning
Cracks on the floor well it served as a warning
Everything's changing
All re-arranging
Felt so familiar
So amazing
Hopped in the car
Drove to the mountains
Cows in the street
Prayer beads you were counting
There was the river
Eternal Giver
Flowing forever
Remember find your center
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center
My love it's just a reminder
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center
My love it's just a reminder

When you've lost your way
Colors start to fade
Take a look within
Find your offering
Hold it to the sun
Let your spirit run
Remember
Remember find your center
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center
My love it's just a reminder
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center
My love it's just a reminder
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center
My love it's just a reminder
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center
My love it's just a reminder
My love it's just a reminder
Find your center
My love it's just a reminder
