

Alive

Trevor Hall

A cycle of life, I tried what's right
I'm moving through the seasons, one at a time
Every turning world and I'm gonna play the part
Beauty in the rhythm, songs from the heart

A feeling you can't describe
Once it hits you you know you're alive

Falling leaves from the autumn breeze
All painted out of golden trees
Reflections of your past when the sun goes down, down, down
Forget about the future and what might be found

A feeling you can't describe
Once it hits you you know you're alive

Ever feel like you've lost your breath?
Feel like you're tightened up in the chest
Feel like your mind's spinning out
Everything I thought was real is now in doubt

A feeling you can't describe
Once it hits you you know you're alive

Know you're alive
Know you're alive
Know you're alive, alive
Know you're alive
Know you're alive

Once I fell in love, fell in love with you
I felt like I had nothing left to do
You know everything was complete
I fell solid you know, on my feet

A feeling you can't describe
Once it hits you you know you're alive, alive
A feeling you can't describe
Once it hits you you know you're alive, alive
