

Like a arrow and a hunter
Aiming for the thunder
All of this I wonder
Shadows on the sky

Like a arrow and a hunter
Aiming for the thunder
All of this I wonder
Shadows on the sky

Yeah, but everybody's sayin' it's unknown
Feel like a foreigner in my own home
But let me tell you darlin' I won't weep
I stay awake while the country sleeps
And to the sun I forever rule and burn it down
Breakin' it out of the stone,
Let the king pull back that bow
And give rest to the sow

Like a arrow and a hunter
Aiming for the thunder
All of this I wonder
Shadows on the sky

Like a arrow and a hunter
Aiming for the thunder
All of this I wonder
Shadows on the sky

What is it like when it's turned around?
The roots go up and the branches down
Mute men speak and they sing of crowns
Only the fearless, only the fearless
Some of them know of a love so deep
Tell me how to cross this great big sea
If you know that song, better light it on fire
Come higher

Like a arrow and a hunter
Aiming for the thunder
All of this I wonder
Shadows on the sky

Like a arrow and a hunter
Aiming for the thunder
All of this I wonder
Shadows on the sky

Like a arrow and a hunter
Aiming for the thunder
All of this I wonder
Shadows on the sky

Like a arrow and a hunter
Aiming for the thunder
All of this I wonder
Shadows on the sky
