

Everything passing and changing
I can see memories fading
This I have been contemplating

All of these patterns of weather
Nothing is lasting forever
Walking the path of surrender

So I have been patiently seeking
The heart that is openly beating
Where all of those rivers are meeting

I have the faith that I'm guided
All of the omens aligning
Mother Divine in Her timing

So watch it come now and watch it go
Don't you hold onto the high and low
The spirit dancing on the unknown
Let it move your soul
What lies ahead now what lies behind
Put all that worry out of your mind
Look in your own home
What will you find
Let it move your soul

So watch it come now and watch it go
Don't you hold onto the high and low
The spirit dancing on the unknown
Let it move your soul
What lies ahead now what lies behind
Put all that worry out of your mind
Look in your own home
What will you find
Let it move your soul

So watch it come now and watch it go
Don't you hold onto the high and low
The spirit dancing on the unknown
Let it move your soul
