Trevor Hall

I'm gonna start walking
Walking through walls
I've heard them talking
I ain't tripping at all
They're built so heavy
Boxing me in
How to get through
Don't know where to begin

Nobody told me how to break them down or go around another way
Nobody told me I was never in control anyways
So whatever
It's much better
When you don't know how it's all gonna be
So whatever
I'm doing better

Running in circles
Stuck in a maze
I'm feeling dizzy
But I ain't even fazed
My house is on fire
I'm burning up
And just like that
It'll never be what it was

Nobody told me how to break them down or go around another way
Nobody told me I was never in control anyways
So whatever
It's much better
When you don't know how it's all gonna be
So whatever
I'm doing better

Nobody told me how to break them down or go around another way
Nobody told me I was never in control anyways
Nobody told me how to break them down or go around another way
Nobody told me I was never in control anyways
So whatever
