

Where's The Love

Trevor Hall

So many gods but no love for the people
My mama told me that we're all made equal
What are we fighting for?
Why are we still at war?
Where's the love? Where's the love?
So many prayers but where's the prayer for peace?
My papa told me that we all must serve and feed?
What are we fighting for?
Why are we still at war?
Where's the love? Where's the love?

I got a confession
My heart is stressing for a blessing, a blessing
So, the scene is set
Dropping bombs on each other cause it's what God said
How did we let it get to this
All this fighting makes me sick
The candle has burnt out the wick
And I quit

So many gods but no love for the people
My mama told me that we're all made equal
What are we fighting for?
Why are we still at war?
Where's the love? Where's the love?
So many prayers but where's the prayer for peace?
My papa told me that we all must serve and feed?
What are we fighting for?
Why are we still at war?
Where's the love? Where's the love?

All the jackals howl the same
The truth is one but goes by many names
Well the winners write in their own history yeah
But turn their backs on, turn their backs on,
But turn their backs on reality

So many gods but no love for the people
My mama told me that we're all made equal
What are we fighting for?
Why are we still at war?
Where's the love? Where's the love?
So many prayers but where's the prayer for peace?
My papa told me that we all must serve and feed?
What are we fighting for?
Why are we still at war?
Where's the love? Where's the love?

Oh darling, dry your eyes
The world heals your cries
Pay no attention to what they may say
Tell all the demons to just go away
How can we wage war?
How can we wage it when we're under the same sky
We're under the same sky

So many gods but no love for the people

My mama told me that we're all made equal
What are we fighting for?
Why are we still at war?
Where's the love? Where's the love?
So many prayers but where's the prayer for peace?
My papa told me that we all must serve and feed?
What are we fighting for?
Why are we still at war?
Where's the love? Where's the love?
