

without expectation

Trevor Hall

No more secrets
Come as you are
All of it fits just right
Heart to heart
There's no tradition
Nothing by the book
All you need is courage
Have the strength to look

There's no more pretending
You can't measure in this room
Just walk through the doorway
Just follow the tune
I see your robe of patches
It is perfectly arranged
Here there is no worry
Letting go of shame

We sit in pure absence, without expectation
Pure absence, without expectation
(Pure absence, without expectation)

Let us share, don't be scared
Come on in, everything will be alright
A common truth or something new
What's to lose? All we gotta do is try

Let us share, don't be scared
Come on in, everything will be alright
A common truth or something new
What's to lose? All we gotta do is try

Let us share, don't be scared
Come on in, everything will be alright
A common truth or something new
What's to lose? All we gotta do is try

Let us share, don't be scared
Come on in, everything will be alright
A common truth or something new
What's to lose? All we gotta do is try

Everything will be alright

Everything will be alright
