Love is the most dangerous game
I had to find that shit out the hard way
You like the chase, you do it for fun
Shootin' your shot, now I'm on the run
Got me slippin', but you won't catch me fallin'

'Cause I'm not gonna be another broken heart
That you add to your collection
That's why I have to put it to an end before it starts
I won't let you add me to your collection
Don't wanna be another broken heart

You got all them secrets
If I'm being honest, I've been there before
I don't wanna repeat it
Fell in your trap, now you got a hold on me
I've seen your footprints in the mud and the tiny house that yo u've been haunting me
And little did you know

I'm tryna save you from becoming another broken heart
That I add to my collection, aye
That's why I have to put it to an end before it starts
Don't wanna have to add you to my collection
We would just give each other a broken heart
