

Jog Your Memory

Trevor Jackson

The Loud pack
Is this Shiv?

Let me jog your memory
Know it's been a while since you felt something right
It's about that time, yeah
I can jog your memory
I know all the perfect ways to hit your spot
Case you forgot
I can jog your memory

Finish, you cannot embrace
You can't run now like a race
So let me jog your memory (Memory)
Know you like it freestyle
Come in first place now
Let me jog your memory

It's a marathon, it's not a race
I can pull any time of the day
Kick everybody out when I'm on the way, ah, ah-ah, ah, ah
I got you gone with me off of the drink
Now my tongue got you shaking your legs
Make the bedroom feel like a lake, ah, ah-ah, ah, ah
That's a lot of ass, but I can manage
What you got behind you, that's just dangerous
If you rather be in love wouldn't mind it
Just let me inside you

Let me jog your memory
Know it's been a while since you felt something right
It's about that time, yeah
I can jog your memory
I know all the perfect ways to hit your spot
Case you forgot
I can jog your memory, yeah

Finish, you cannot embrace
You can't run now like a race
Oh, let me jog your memory (Memory)
Know you like it freestyle
Come in first place now
Let me jog your memory

Girl, you gon' have to come through
Make it all happen how you want to Speed it just the way I want to Top four, when I ride you
Every time you want it
I bet you'll remember me, yeah
Pull up on you any time I jog your memory
Tell me what you wanna do to me
(Don't act like you knew me)
So surprised when I invite you
Every now and then, you know I love a reminder
Boy, let me jog your

Memory (Memory, yeah)
'Ree, ee-ee, yeah
'Ree, ee-ee

I remember that you leave the key under the welcome mat
I know I've made some mistakes and there's no coming back from that Fuckin you once ain't enough so I had to double back
Ain't no shame in that
Oh-oh, oh, oh

I'm down to do what you like
Don't you dare me
When your heart is on the line
I know it's scary
Just let emotion flow
I'll make you comfortable
Nobody has to know that I jogged your memory

'Ree, ee-ee, yeah
