

LOVE&affection

Trevor Jackson

Feel like I gave it my all I don't know who else to call
I don't know who else to trust there's already too many involve d
I've even lowered my standards lost a hold of my manners
Ain't talked to God in a while now don't know how I'll manage
I've got my reasons to go but still I can't leave you alone
My mama told me move on from you but for you I am weak in the b ones
I can't move can't breathe can't lose can't leave
It ain't you it ain't me

It don't make sense to pass around the fault
When it comes to love sometimes we fall
And sometimes what you love don't love you back
But right now I'm in love I'm not trying to hear that

I could use come love and affection
I want you I want you
I could use come love and affection
I want you I want you

Ask the Lord for a sign do I want to quit is it time
I'll be dead before I sell my soul feels like I'm losing my min
d
I know times get hard it always hurts my heart
Wish I could brace myself see the end from the start
I appreciate the journey I just hope it don't burn me Hope mama ain't right or I might see my death early
This is all I got to give me more than one shot
You put me here in the spot

It don't make sense to pass around the fault
When it comes to love sometimes we fall
And sometimes what you love don't love you back
But right now I'm in love I'm not trying to hear that

I could use come love and affection
I want you I want you
I could use come love and affection
I want you I want you
