

Remember The Time

Trevor Jackson

(Yung Shad on the beat)

Do you remember the time when love was blind, but you'd come and see me?
Girl, just show me a sign, I can provide all you've been wanting
'Cause you know it ain't shit to me
To put a couple hundred thousand up
Just so you can feel my love
Them niggas pretenders, but this real to me
Tell him that his time is up
He never make you moan enough, oh-oh

If you left me, girl, I'd be dead
I'd be in a mortuary
You're sweeter than strawberry sorbet
Spread them legs out the way
Now I gotta catch me breath
I'm not at the weeds yet
We already locked in and I ain't even put in the key yet
Locked down and now I'm pullin' onto your dress (Hmm)
You got a real nigga obsessed (Hmm)
Girl, we makin' love, this more than two people just havin' sex (Yeah)
Even when you, even when you givin' me neck (Yeah)
I feel like you mean it, I almost believe it
You got me thinkin' that you really needin' it

Do you remember the time when love was blind, but you'd come and see me?
Girl, just show me a sign, I can provide all you've been wanting
'Cause you know it ain't shit to me
To put a couple hundred thousand up
Just so you can feel my love
Them niggas pretenders, but this real to me
Tell him that his time is up
He never make you moan enough, oh-oh

I know it's complicated
The wheels on the bus go 'round and around (Ooh)
But you found the fastest way to my heart
I stopped the world and I'll melt with you like popsicles (Yeah)
When we kick it, you got me standin' up, somethin' like tricycles
Meetin' in my bedroom like zoom
Pedal to the metal like vroom (Skrtrt)
She a saint, but the way she soakin', swear, can't nothin' get by you
The bitches all over my meat, Wagyu (Wagyu)
But I'm tryna get like yo' tattoos
All up on yo' body
You the only thing that help me with anxiety, you do

Ooh, yeah
That shit's hard
You the only thing that help me with anxiety, you do
(Ooh) I guess I'm dependent and shit
You tell me, this

Do you remember the time when love was blind, but you'd come and see me? (Woah-oh)
Girl, just show me a sign, I can provide all you've been wanting (Oh-oh, you've been wanting)

'Cause you know it ain't shit to me
To put a couple hundred thousand up (Woo)
Just so you can feel my love (Oh, yeah)
Them niggas pretenders (Pretenders), but this real to me (Woo)
Tell him that his time is up (Uh)
He never make you moan enough, oh-oh

Woo
Nobody know your body like me, woo
You help me with all my anxiety, woo
I never thought it could be this peaceful
With a bad bitch, girl, I'll never be deceitful
