

Unpacking

Trevor Jackson

Hey how you doing it's me, uh, Trevor. I know it's been a minute but, um, I just been thinking about you and like, like every time we try to have a conversation there's, there's just more to it it's never simple it's always complex and there's different things that I wish were different you get me but I don't know...

You left them keys and your light blue denim
When are you pickin' them up?
And, how the fuck you leave your blue mascara
In my toothbrush cup
You ignore the sound of my voice all the time
(Why you do that)
How you write a check but you can't ever stay in line
It's not like I don't care it's just more like I don't wanna fight
How you transforming like you Optimus Prime
First you mean and then you nice

I'm sick of this unpacking
I'm sick of this unpacking
Cause you just end up back with your stuff
You never really leave me
When you say you're gonna leave me
And you just end up backing it up

Tell me how you...
Love me, love me, love me
Then you leave me
Love me, love me, love me
Then you leave me
Tell me how you
Love me, love me, love me
Then you leave me
It's so deceiving
How you're leaving

You start up as hot as fire
You end up as cold as ice
You'd think Jerry Springer's in
Our room, well, my room
I-
Don't wanna waste all my-
Time; but won't let you sit on my pride
I'm just trying to- (sigh) can you shut the...
I don't wanna keep keeping up the back and forth
Said you needed time; Now you wanna be compatible
Now you wanna come back; Now you think you rational
Leave it on facetime; Girl you know that shit is magical
When I'm in the bed with you
You like baby tell the truth
I mean I might have got some head or two
But nobody give me head like you

I'm sick of this unpacking
I'm sick of this unpacking
Cause you just end up packing it up

You just end up back in my home, my home, my home

Tell me how you...

Love me, love me, love me

Then you leave me

Love me, love me, love me

Then you leave me

Tell me how you

Love me, love me, love me

Then you leave me

It's so deceiving

How you're leaving

And you love me then you leave me baby, yeah

And you love me then you leave me baby, yeah

And you love me then you leave me baby, yeah
