Trevor Jackson

Feels like I'm talking to myself again
I don't know
When you start deleting all your messages
Out your phone
Look how you made me
Why you turn around and try to play me
We ain't even been talkin'

I know that you know I've been calling
Why you gotta be distant
Rather then being honest
Like it ain't none of my business

Who you been lovin'
Who you been touching
Baby tell me what's the point if it ain't me
Who you been lovin'
Who you been touching
Baby tell me what's the point if it ain't me

Wonder what you doin' wit him
Girl that shits annoying
He ain't that important
Tell me what you doing wit him
Who are you avoiding
You know I got that for you
I'm jus tryna vacay sun tan wit a great view
You've been in the right place with the wrong dude
I'm jus tryna save you from what you been through

I know that you know I've been calling
Why you gotta be distant
Rather then being honest
Like it ain't none of my business

Who you been lovin'
Who you been touching
Baby tell me what's the point if it ain't me
Who you been lovin'
Who you been touching
Baby tell me what's the point if it ain't me

If it ain't me
If it ain't me
If it ain't me
If it ain't me
