Someone

Trevor Moran

And your love,
And your love.
When the lights come crashin' down (down, down, down...)
We're all faces in a crowd (crowd, crowd, crowd...)
I'll be your wind at night, you'd be the rain
We'd be a symphony, a hurricane.
Come run away with me, come take my hand,
I'll love you forever from now till the end.

Somewhere out there, is what you want, what you wanted.
Somewhere out there, is what you want, what you wanted.
Does someone need, does someone need a someone?
Does someone need, does someone need a someone?
Somewhere out there...
Now dance

And your love... [x6]
And your love has been hard to find, find-find.
But I won't stop till you're mine (mine), mine.
I'll be your wind at night, you'd be the rain.
We'd be a symphony, a hurricane!
Come run away with me, come take my hand.
I'll love you forever from now till the end.

Somewhere out there, is what you want, what you wanted.
Somewhere out there, is what you want, what you wanted.
Does someone need, does someone need a someone?
Does someone need, does someone need a someone?
Somewhere out there...
Now dance

And your love... [x12]
Somewhere out there, is what you want, what you wanted.
Somewhere out there, is what you want, what you wanted.
Now dance
Does someone need, does someone need a someone?
Does someone need, does someone need a someone?
