

Cayman Review

Trey Anastasio

Cabo Wabo's everywhere.
It's on my skin and in my hair.
And Louise, I think I've fallen for you.
Might go down easy, this is my Cayman Review

Don't know how you did the rest of sixteen men on a dead man's chest.
But Louise, I can't seem to get enough of you.
Might go down easy, this is my Cayman Review

(chorus 1)

I'm feeling kind of funny, I think i'm sinking down.
My head, it starts a spinning as i tumble to the ground,
thinking I spent all my money just a chasing you around, Louise!

(chorus 2)

I know that you've got it and you know what it's for.
'Cause when you get to shakin' and then you shake a little more,
shake me up, shake me down, shakin that thing all over
town.
Shake me up, shake me down, shakin that thing all over
town
Shake me up, shake me down, shakin that thing all over
town
Shake me up, shake me down, shakin that thing all over
town
Shake me up, shake me down, shakin that thing all over
town
Shake me up, shake me down-----

Don Eduardo's everywhere
It's on my skin and in my hair.
And Louise, I think I've fallen for you.
