

I Never Left Home

Trey Anastasio

Oh, impressed by composure you've shown for a week
Oh, I seem to recall that you got it from me
Oh, now I am weakened, confidence shattered
Oh, then it occurs to me that none of it mattered
Oh, drowned with delight, I escape in the night
Oh, hoping for nothing to spoil my flight
Oh, I'll never be halted, I always shall roam
And then it occurs that I never left home
Oh, cherishing memories of time spent with you
Oh, scaling the cliffs and enjoying the view
Oh, sailing the river, devoid of a care
Oh, it occurs to me then that I never was there

I never left home
And none of it mattered (My heart wants to roam)
I never left home
And nobody mattered (My heart wants to roam)
I never left home
I never left home
And none of it mattered (My heart wants to roam)
I'll never leave home
And none of it mattered
I'll never leave home
I'll never leave home
And none of it mattered
I never left home
None of it mattered
I never left home (Never left home)
None of it mattered
Never leave home
Never leave home
