

Distant

Triathalon

I just wanna ride my bike
Yeah
I'm just sick of always watching the news
I just wanna go outside
Yeah
Spend a weekend way up top with a view
And why you always running back
Why you wanna follow that
(I'm just waiting for the weekend)
Why you you always talking bad
Why you wanna fuck with that
(I'm just layin' in the deep end)

I'm just layin' in the deep end (For you)
I'm just layin' in the deep end (It's true)
I'm just layin' in the deep end (For you)
For you I'm just laying in the

I haven't been home in a minute
I've been distant
I've been shiftin'
I've been lost
We don't talk when I'm busy
I've been distant (I've been distant)
I've been shiftin' (I've been shifting)
We don't talk

I'm just layin' in the deep end (For you)
I'm just layin' in the deep end (It's true)
I'm just layin' in the deep end (For you)
For you I'm just laying in the

I'm in my bed, but I'm laying on the floor
Summer is long, but it keeps me wanting more
I wonder who you're with at night
And why you're always on my mind
On my mind
On my mind
On my mind
