Triathlon

She asked why I'm staying
Well I'm not ready to move
I said not the city
It's too busy to groove
Give me some more time girl
I'm done lying to you
I don't wanna hurt her
But my mindset's too loose

I know that I'll get you back
Give me time
My heart's detached

I'm sure I'm not ready
It's too heavy to think
I bet she still hates me
It don't phase me to dream
I lie sleeping lonely
No one to hold me awake
Help me feel more empty
It's too easy to stay

I know that I'll get you back
Give me time
Our heart's detached

I need time
Get back
She needs back
To know that
So help me out
