Relax

Triathalon

Walk around my room and stare outside
Take a break and watch the day go by

Nothing's gonna change if you don't try
Waste another day and close your eyes
Lay my head and call it in
And fall apart and start again
Something's off, so I'll pretend
I'm wide awake but sleeping in

I know it's bad
Everyone goes on my own
I know it's sad
Everyone folds, don't let go
I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know
