

Swells

Triathlon

She said
"Why you tryna move on"
She's talking like I'm stupid
Just tryna get my groove on
Why you wanna go back
To the city

She knows
Exactly what she's doing
And I know what she's thinking
And I'm just here to lose in her
Why am I always thinking
Of the city

All my friends who move there
End up leaving me

And I know
Exactly what I'm doing
And I know I can feel it
And I'm just here to lose in her
Why am I always thinking
Why am I always dreaming
Why am I always thinking
Of the city
