

Eternal
Spirits of all things
Immortal
Omniscient
Holders of the keys
To the hidden mysteries of the world

Gods
Of the wind
Sacred be the force of all fire
Grand solid earthly power
Wielders of the waters of change

I hear the thunder, your call
And leave to find my dwelling in your presence

Guide me
Through nightly realms of magic
In nature's arms, oh mighty souls

Resplendent
Your wisdom shines forth
As infinite spirits
Life and death are veering through your force

Gods
Of the wind
Sacred be the force of all fire
Grand solid earthly power
Wielders of the waters of change

I hear the thunder, your call
And leave to find my dwelling in your presence
Guide me
Through nightly realms of magic
In nature's arms, oh mighty souls
