Imprisoned In Abhorrence

Tribulation

Entombed and nailed to the wall
Forbidden act of blasphemy
Doomed to die a painfull death
He will return to feed on human flesh

Impious, Godforsaken house
Old curse is awakening the dead shall walk the earth
Trapped inside repugnance
Lying on the floor, eating from your disfigured face

Trapped in a void eternally
To be beyond what's there to see
No return, eternal life in hell
And you will face the sea of darkness
And all therein that may be explored

Spreading like a disease
Putrid rebirth for the cadavers
Splatter your face with glass
Dying, bleeding, awakening of death

Trapped in a void eternally
To be beyond what's there to see
Putrefaction, rotting from inside
Reek of the carcass fills my head
It's time to die

Confusion and death is everything there is
All around the darkness falls, leaving a path to hell
Striving to get away from the reapers kiss
Ends up in a void of confusion, Eibons deadly spell

Praying for your puny lives
Hunted by the undead, no where left to hide
Lifeless, yet so alive
Eating your guts while you sit and stare

Trapped in a void eternally
To be beyond what's there to see
No return, eternal life in hell
And you will face the sea of darkness
And all therein that may be explored
